"These are performers at the top of their game"

The Scotsman

The multi-award winning kings of gypsy cabaret are back in the UK with their mix of music, theatre and black humour.

Captained by Mikangelo's extraordinary, sonorous vocals, the Gentlemen sail their ship of fools through oceans of tragicomedy, storms of melodrama and waves of eccentricity, leaving audiences weeping with laughter in their wake.

The Spiegeltent is like a second home to the group, having played countless sold out shows in the tent from the Edinburgh Fringe to the Melbourne International Festival.

Their signature sound blends Balkan melodies and European Kabaret - an infectious fusion that plumbs the depths of sophisticated irreverence. The Brighton debut of this internationally acclaimed ensemble is sure to be one of the hottest tickets at the Fringe.

"They are not so much a band as a dream you cannot wake from."
